Women Wonder Why

They are doomed to so much suffering. But are they doomed? Is not the suffering the result of conditions which under skillful treatment might be entirely cured? Thousands of women who had been great sufferers, have learned that suffering was unnecessary after using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It heals diseases of the delicate womanly organs and banishes the headache, backache and other aches which are the consequence of these diseases.

"Favorite Prescription" is absolutely a temperance medicine in the strictest meaning of the term. It contains no alcohol and is free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

"I wrote you for advice February 4th, 1896," writes Mrs. Lema Hales, of Claremore, Cherokee Nat. Ind. "I was racking with pain from the back of my head down to my heels. Had hemorrhages for weeks at a time, and was unable to sit up for ten minutes at a time. You answered my letter, advised me to use your valuable medicine, viz., Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, Golden Medical Discovery, and Pleasant Pellets, also gave advice about injections, baths and diet. To my surprise, in four months from the time I began your treatment I was a well woman and have not had the backache since, and now I put in sixteen hours a day at hard work."

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

KILLED HER SIX CHILDREN.
Heartbroken and half insane because she was to be separated from her six children, Mrs. Lizzie Naramore, wife of Frank L. Naramore, a lawyer, living in Barre, Mass., murdered all six with an axe yesterday morning and then, after carefully gathering the bodies of the little ones about her in her bedroom she slashed herself across the throat four times with a razor and cut the arteries in the calf of both legs.

The tragedy occurred near the village of Culbrook. The woman now lives and doctors think she has a chance to recover. When found the mother lay in bed with the youngest child, Lena, a year old, hugged to her breast, while in the same bed with her lay Bessie, three years old; Walter, eight years old, and Chester, five years old. On another bed in the same room lay Ethel, aged nine, the eldest child, and Charles, six years old.

The woman was alive when discovered, and while she could not speak she waved her arms towards the children and held the infant Lena closer to her breast.

Walter's head was completely battered in, the blow having been rained on the left side of the head. The same was the case with the other children, all of whom were unrecognizable when found.

George Thresher, employed by the Parker Lumber Company, was the first to discover the dead. He reached the house about 3 o'clock, and after making a futile attempt to get in, looked through the window of the front room. Lying on the bed he saw the dead children and their mother. He did not stop to make an investigation, but went back to the town and secured help.

Mrs. Naramore's husband was notified and he went back with the party, which was made up of Clarence H. Parker, Esq., Cole, Will Beaman, and Byron Butterfield. An entrance was made without delay and the mutilated bodies of the six children were found. Examiner Walcott took charge of the bodies, while he also attended to the wounds of the woman. She was removed to the village hotel, where an attempt is being made to save her life.

The Naramore family have from time to time been assisted by the town of Templeton, and on Thursday W. F. Robie, one of the overseers of the poor of Templeton, called at the Naramore home and told Mrs. Naramore he would have to send her and her children to the poorhouse. He would be able to let her have Lena and Bessie there with her, but the other children would have to be taken away.

The poor mother had brooded over it since then, and woke her husband yesterday morning and talked with him about it. This is thought to be the cause of the act.

Her husband is a shiftless sort of a fellow, and last night did not seem to realize the awfulness of the tragedy that had taken place.

A HIDEOUS MONSTER.—Fishermen who have a special liking for practicing with the rod in Lake Kilby, in Dismal Swamp, Va., have reported seeing a hideous monster and the beautiful body of a trout. The monster was said to be a head similar to that of a man, but to have yellow eyes. The hair was black, and huge shaggy eyebrows hung low on the face; the body was about eight feet long, the tail about six feet and the aggregation is estimated to weigh in the proximity of 300 pounds avoirdupois. Much excitement has been caused by the report.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children
"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It is recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Richard Gibson, druggist.

CHRONIC NASAL CATARRH poisons every breath that is drawn into the lungs. There is procurable from any druggist the remedy for the cure of this trouble. A small quantity of Ely's Cream Balm placed into the nostrils spreads over an inflamed and astringent surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation, cleanses, heals and cures. A cold in the head vanishes immediately. Sold by druggists or will be mailed for 60 cents by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more when given One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for croup. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat ailment. It is specific for croup, whooping cough and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough.
